

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS

00003258361

OLD SOUTH
LOAN COLLECTION.

RELICS OF Y^E OLDEN TIME.

CATALOGUE
OF THE
LOAN COLLECTION
OF
REVOLUTIONARY RELICS

EXHIBITED AT THE
OLD SOUTH CHURCH,

NOVEMBER, 1876.

FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE OLD SOUTH PURCHASE FUND.

FIFTH EDITION.

BOSTON:
PRESS OF GEORGE H. ELLIS.
1876.

COMMITTEE.

Thomas G. Appleton,	Walter Lloyd Jeffries.
Adams Ayer,	Martin P. Kennard,
Mrs. James Codman,	Charles L. Peirson,
Richard Codman,	Edward G. Porter,
H. H. Edes,	Ben : Perley Poore,
C. W. Elliott,	Mrs. John Revere,
Samuel A. Green,	Mrs. G. Howland Shaw,
E. E. Hale,	Mrs. G. W. Simmons, Jr.,
Miss Susan Hale,	Miss L. P. Sohier,
Mrs. Augustus Hemenway,	William P. Upham,
Mrs. Charles D. Homans,	J. Collins Warren,
James F. Hunnewell,	Wm. H. Whitmore,
B. Joy Jeffries,	Robert C. Winthrop.

CATALOGUE.

1. Framed Address to the King by the Congress of Philadelphia, Mellen Chamberlain, Chelsea.
2. Framed Declaration of Independence, “ “ “
3. Framed Articles of Confederation entered into by the Colonies, “ “ “
4. Framed Constitution of the United States, “ “ “
5. Oaths of Allegiance, Mrs. T. P. James, Cambridge.
6. Lady Washington's Shoes, “ “ “
7. Keys of the organ of Christ Church, Cambridge, with Autograph of the maker and date. This instrument was selected by Handel, and presented to Christ Church, by the city of London, in 1761. Some of the lead pipes were taken out by the Provincial soldiers, made into slugs, and were part of the ammunition used at Bunker Hill. Notwithstanding this loss, the remaining pipes discoursed sweet sounds until 1848, Mrs. T. P. James.
8. Cross of Dutch Oak, made of wood from Old Organ, Christ's Church, Cambridge, “ “
9. View of 1765, engraved by Paul Revere, R. C. Mackay.

10. Silver Bowl. For some years previous to the Revolution a number of gentlemen known as the "Sons of Liberty" used to meet and discuss the questions of the day. In 1768, the Colonial Assembly of Massachusetts Bay voted to raise a Committee of Correspondence with her Sister Colonies on their grievances. The British Ministry demanded the repeal of this act. The Assembly voted "not to rescind," and in commemoration of this vote the Sons of Liberty had this massive Punch Bowl made. After the Revolution it was purchased by one of their number, Mr. William Mackay, ancestor of the present owner, R. C. Mackay.
11. Silver Strainer, " "
12. Silver Coffee-Pot, " "
13. Kitchen Tongs, Francis Brooks.
14. Powder Horn used at Bunker Hill, " "
15. Cocked Hat of Gen. John Brooks, Aide-de-Camp to Washington, " "
16. Holster Pistol of Gen. Brooks, " "
17. Portrait of Hon. Nathaniel Gorham, Chairman of the Convention which framed the Federal Constitution. Copy by Rembrandt Peale, Edward Brooks.
18. Portrait of Major-General John Brooks. Aide-de-Camp to Washington. Painted by Stuart, " "
19. Portrait of Peter Chardon. Crayon by Copley. Frame made by Paul Revere, " "
20. Rifle from Bunker Hill, Francis Brooks.
21. View of Boston, 1768, by Paul Revere, Samuel A. Green.
23. Chair used in the Salem Witchcraft Trial, Miss M. R. Crozeninshield.
24. Collection of Historical Pamphlets and two Manuscripts framed in Glass, J. Wingate Thornton.
25. Powder Horn used at Bunker Hill, G. G. Stone.

26. Piece of Cloth worn by Commodore Tucker in the Revolution, G. G. Stone.
27. Baluster of Front Stairs, Hancock House, B. Joy Jeffries.
28. Glass Frame Case, containing Bill of Sale of Negro Boy; Letter of Major Paddock, who planted the Paddock Elms; Passes of Boston Selectmen and British Commanders to Dr. John Jeffries; Request for thanks to the Rev. Mr. Eckley, of the Old South, 1802, " "
29. Bellows used one hundred and twenty-five years ago in the family of Hon. Samuel Tufts, of Newbury-port, Mr. Richards.
30. Portrait Rev. Joseph Sewall, D. D., Pastor of Old South Church from 1713 till his death, 1769, D. W. Salisbury.
31. Silver Porringer, made by Paul Revere, Madam Jeffries.
32. Silver Candlestick, 1776, B. Joy Jeffries.
33. Sir William Pepperell, Engraving, D. R. Slade.
34. Thomas Prince, Pastor of Old South Church, Engraving, " "
35. Rev. John Morehead, Engraving, " "
36. Old Engraving, 1785, showing dress of the period, . . . " "
37. A Remnant of the Original Flag that hung from the Liberty Tree, Washington St., Boston, 1775, H. C. Fernald.
38. Flag that hung from Liberty Tree, " "
39. Engraving representing the Landing of the British on Long Wharf, 1768, by Paul Revere, Mrs. T. J. Homer.
40. Portrait of Samuel Gore, who assisted in throwing the Tea overboard in Boston Harbor, Dec. 16, 1773, . Mrs. N. Walker.
41. Cradle belonging to Samuel Grant, father of Moses Grant, who assisted in throwing the Tea overboard in Boston Harbor, Dec. 16, 1773,
42. Portrait of Dr. John Warren, painted from a mask and bust, under the direction of Dr. J. C. Warren, by J. Pope,

43. Hancock House, 1776, Miss R. Salisbury.
44. Hancock House, 1850, " "
45. Photograph of Copley's Portrait of Gov. Hancock, " "
46. Photograph of Copley's Portrait of Mrs. Hancock, " "
47. A Ball picked up at Cambridge, fired by the British into the American Camp, breaking the pot in which broth was cooking, and spilling the contents, . . . Chas. Breck, Milton.
48. A Wallet, containing Manuscripts dated 1739, '41, and '50, owned by a Soldier of the Revolution, A. O. Corbett.
49. Sleeve Buttons worn by the same, " "
50. Battle of Bunker Hill, by Carter, James Lee.
51. A Sword used in the Revolution, T. T. Bailies, Scituate.
52. Deed of Sale of a Slave, 1762, " " "
54. Ancient Wallet, worked by Marcy Otis, " " "
55. Chatelaine of Elizabeth Alney Ellery, Mother of William Ellery, Signer of Declaration, . . . Miss Elizabeth Ellery Dana.
56. Watch belonging to Gov. Hancock, given to Mrs.
Wm. Greenough, by Madame Hancock, Mrs. Wm. Greenough.
57. Cane made from one of the Timbers of the old Winthrop House, which stood near the North Bridge, Concord, Miss N. S. Hosmer.
58. Cane made from the Timbers of the Old South Bridge in Concord. These two bridges, the "North" and "South" were guarded by British Soldiers to prevent reënforcements to the Americans, " "
59. Portrait of Gov. Pierce; served through the Revolution; present at Bunker Hill; Father of President Pierce, Mrs. Benham.
60. Embroidered Blanket in which Samuel Adams was baptized, September, 1722. It was wrought about 1714, by Mary Fifield, his future mother, and has descended in a "line of Marys" through six generations, Miss Mary A. White, Brookline.

61. Cannon-Ball fired from one of Lord Percy's Field-pieces; ploughed up a few years since, . . . F. B. Hayes, Lexington.
62. Cartridge-Box worn at the Battle of Lexington by Francis Brown, Sergeant, afterwards Captain, of the Minute-men, Francis H. Brown.
63. Sword of Edmund Monroe, one of the Lexington Minute-men; killed at Monmouth, June, 1778, . . . " "
64. Copperplate Coat of Arms belonging to Rev. Jonas Clark, Lexington, 1775, Henry G. Clark.
65. Pewter Plate from which Washington ate on his Visit to the Munroe Tavern in 1789, William and J. S. Munroe, Lexington.
66. Portrait of Lord Percy; engraved in London, 1777, . . . E. G. Porter.
67. Seven Prints of the Battle of Lexington, . . . F. B. Hayes, Lexington.
68. Two Prints of the Retreat of the British from Concord, " " "
69. One Print of Gen. Putnam receiving the news of the Battle of Lexington, " " "
70. Pocket-Book and Continental Currency, . . . Gershom Swan, Lexington.
71. Powder-Horn and Musket used at the Battle of Lexington by Nathan Dudley, Charles Dudley.
72. Volume of Anniversary Sermons preached at Lexington on each 19th of April during the Revolutionary War, E. G. Porter.
73. Ancient Powder-Horn: "Unite or Die," . . . Hammen Reed, Lexington.
74. Sword worn by William Reed, Esq., a Representative of the Town of Lexington in the General Court in 1757, and Captain in the French and Indian War, 1755, " " "
75. Pocket-Book of Joshua Bentley, the Ferry-man who carried Paul Revere across to Charlestown on the night of April 18, 1775, Joshua Bentley Fowle, Lexington.
76. Sword of Robert Newman, who gave the signal from Christ Church, Joshua Bentley Fowle, Lexington.

77. China Cup and Silver Spoon used by Washington at the Munroe Tavern, Lexington, in 1789,
Miss Laura Muzzey Brigham, Lexington.
78. Spectacles of Col. William Munroe, . . . “ “ “ “
79. Wedding Ring, 1767: “Hearts united live contented,” “ “ “
80. Silver Spoon: “Wm + Anna,” “ “ “
81. Shoe and Stocking worn at baptism by the infant of Mrs. Mary Rogers, afterwards second wife of Col.
William Munroe, William and J. S. Munroe, Lexington.
82. Spurs taken from the heel of a British officer at the Battle of Monmouth, William and J. S. Munroe, Lexington.
83. Gun of John Munroe, used in Battle of Lexington, . . . E. G. Porter.
84. Silver Pepper-Box, China, Glass Ware, and Coin-Scales of Rev. Jonas Clark, Lexington, Henry G. Clark.
85. Cannon-Ball and Grape-Shot fired by Lord Percy’s
Battery, dug up on premises of William Plumer, William Plumer, Lexington.
86. Tobacco-Tongs used in Lexington during the Revolutionary War, William Plumer, Lexington.
87. “The Town of Boston in New England, and Brittish Ships-of-War landing their Troops, 1768,” E. G. Porter.
88. Print of Boston Massacre. “Engraved, printed, and sold by Paul Revere, Boston,” “ “
89. Woodcut for printing calicoes during the war,
William Munroe, Lexington.
90. Cane used by Caleb Harrington, who was shot while leaving the meeting-house on the morning of the 19th, Timothy K. Fiske, Lexington.
91. Snow-shoes worn by Surgeon Fiske, . . . “ “ “
92. Bullets and Grape-shot from the Battle-field of Saratoga (the scene of Burgoyne’s surrender, Oct. 7, 1777), N. M. Wright.
93. Copper Tea-Kettle belonged to Col. Timothy Bige-

- low, 15th Massachusetts Regiment in the Revolutionary War, and used by him in camp throughout the War, Mrs. Theodore Chase.
94. Order written and signed by Paul Revere, George F. Pierce.
95. Order issued on the 17th of June, 1775, to the militia in Dorchester on the movement of Gen. Gage's troops, " "
96. Manuscript books, Mrs. Nathaniel Walker.
97. Letters of the Revolution, copied by John Gore, " " "
98. Pepper-box made by Paul Revere, Mrs. T. Cushing.
99. Three Spoons made by Paul Revere, " "
100. Two pairs of Sugar-tongs of Revolutionary times, " "
102. Picture of the Political Situation of England, her Colonies and France, 1775, Mrs. Warren Weston.
103. China Bowl, containing two Portraits of Washington, one representing him as a Marshal of France, the other with his foot upon the British Lion, " " "
104. Chintz Curtains of Revolutionary days, Mrs. R. H. Dana, Jr.
105. Old English Blunderbus, W. E. Clayton.
106. Old-fashioned Washstand, Miss E. C. Adams, Quincy.
107. An old Chair, " " " "
108. An old Mirror, " " " "
109. Two old Muskets, " " " "
110. Two Cannon-Balls from Bunker Hill, J. M. Brigham.
111. Two Cartridge-Boxes from Bunker Hill, " "
112. Picture of Gen. Warren's birthplace, A. H. Nichols.
114. Silver Can made by Paul Revere, H. H. Edes.
115. School-book used by Gen. Joseph Warren, with his Autograph, " "
116. Punch-Strainer of 1750, " "
117. Christening-cap worn by Dr. Mather Byles at his baptism in 1706, " "
118. George Whitefield's Journal printed by Benjamin Franklin, " "

119. Journal in Boston Jail in 1775, by John Leach, H. H. Edes.
120. Diary kept in Boston Jail in 1775, by Peter Edes, " "
121. Fifth of March Oration, by Dr. Benjamin Church, 1773, " "
122. Fifth of March Oration, by James Lovell, 1771, " "
123. Fifth of March Oration, by John Hancock, 1774, " "
124. Fifth of March Oration, by Gen. Joseph Warren, 1775, " "
125. Boston Almanac, 1774, W. E. Clayton.
126. Old Coins, " "
127. Old Powder-Horn, " "
128. Account-book and seven Autographs and Coins, C. B. Brooks.
129. Old Pitcher, W. H. Dennet.
130. Profile of Count Rumford, B. Joy Jeffries.
131. Sword worn by Josiah Quincy, Jr., at the Queen's birthday reception, Jan. 18, 1775, during his visit in England on Colonial business, Miss Quincy.
132. Photograph of Josiah Quincy, aged 89, 1861; also Rosette worn in an infant's cap, when baptized in the Old South by the Rev. John Hunt, " " 133. Pane of glass in the house of Col. Josiah Quincy, of Braintree, through which he saw the departure of Gen. Gage, " "
134. Antique Locket, Miss M. A. Wales.
135. Sketch of Washington from which the Portrait in Faneuil Hall was painted by Stuart. Letter from Stuart accompanies this sketch, Ignatius Sargent.
136. Original Certificate and Medal of the Cincinnati, Ignatius Sargent, Jr.
137. Pistols belonging to Major Sargent used in the Revolution, " "
138. Snuff-box belonging to Major Sargent, " "
139. Portraits of the Presidents of the United States, from 1789 to 1857; also their Autographs, Mellen Chamberlain, Chelsea.
140. Portraits and autographs of the Sovereigns of Great Britain, from James II. to George IV., " "

141. Autographs of the Participators in the Events at at Lexington and Concord, 1775, Mellen Chamberlain, Chelsea.
142. Autographs of the Participants at the Battle of Bunker Hill, " "
143. Relics from Bunker Hill Dug upon the Battle-field a few years after the Revolution; the oval plate from a uniform of a British Officer; the Buttons from the clothing of our own Men, Augustine Shurtleff.
144. Ancient Silk Wallet, " "
145. Saratoga Gun, Oct. 17, 1777. This gun was one of the 5,790 stand of arms surrendered by Gen. Burgoyne to Gen. Gates at Saratoga, and was presented to Capt. Jonathan Morrill, of Amesbury, Mass., who was present on the occasion, serving in the American Army, J. W. Morrill, Somerville.
147. Framed Picture of Beacon Hill from Mt. Vernon St., N. E. H. G. Society.
148. Beacon Hill from the present site of the Reservoir, " "
149. Beacon Hill from Dene St., " "
150. Beacon Hill from Mr. Thurston's house, " "
151. Beacon Hill from Mt. Vernon St., at Hancock " "
152. Portrait of Franklin, Mrs. Dwight Foster.
153. Wedding Dress of Rebecca Sherman, " "
154. Sugar-Tongs given by Roger Sherman to his daughter, " "
155. Tea-Caddy used by Mrs. Roger Sherman, " "
156. Portrait of Richard Dana, by Copley, R. H. Dana.
157. Portrait of Francis Dana, by Brackett, " "
158. Pair Andirons belonging to William Ellery, " "
159. Pair Candlesticks belonging to William Ellery, " "
160. Chair moved from Charlestown, " "
161. Almanac for 1775, with Manuscript notes referring to Warren's 5th of March Oration, Samuel A. Green.

162. Almanac for 1775, with Manuscript Notes referring to the Battle of Bunker Hill, Samuel A. Green.
163. Watch and Chain of Francis Dana, R. H. Dana.
164. Original Oath of non-execution of the Stamp Act, made by Andrew Oliver before Richard Dana,
Dec. 17, 1765, " "
165. Fish Knife, used by Mrs. John Adams; very old, Miss E. C. Adams.
166. Cream Pot used by Mrs. John Adams; given her on her marriage, in 1763, " "
167. Silver Drinking Can used by John Adams; over one hundred years old, " "
168. Model of the old Warren House, in Roxbury; made of the moss and wood of the same; 1720, Buckminster Brown.
169. Silver Knives and Forks which belonged to Gov.
Hancock, Miss Rebecca Salisbury.
170. Silver Cream Pitcher, made by Paul Revere, " "
171. Piece of the Blood-stained Shirt of one of the Cambridge Minute Men, who fell on the Lexington road, April 19, 1775, E. N. Horsford.
172. Washington Chair, from Mt. Vernon, belonging to Oliver Wolcott, Secretary of the Treasury, J. H. Wolcott.
173. Powder Horn of Col. John Williams, dated 1759, " "
174. Cane, belonging to Oliver Wolcott, signer of the Declaration of Independence, " "
175. Shoe and Knee-buckles belonging to Oliver Wolcott, " "
176. Hair of Gen. and Mrs. Washington given by Mrs.
Washington to Oliver Wolcott, " "
177. Old China Bowl, commemorating the Evacuation of Boston, " "
178. Commission of Sheriff, signed by Roger Wolcott, then Governor of Connecticut, and given by him to Oliver Wolcott, " "
179. Gov. Bowdoin's Sword, now owned by the First

- Corps of Cadets, Thos. F. Edmands.
180. Gov. Gage's Order dismissing John Hancock from his service as Col. of Governor's Company of Cadets, " "
181. Impression of the Seal of the First Corps of Cadets, quartering arms of Gov. Shirley and
Gov. Bowdoin, " "
182. Medallion Head of Dr. Franklin; designed by Le Thiere; engraved by Darcis, 1795, H. H. Edes.
183. View of Boston Massacre, March 5, 1770; engraved
by Paul Revere, " "
184. Cane given in 1778 by Gov. Bowdoin to Gen. Washington; restored by his Widow to the family of the donor, through whose descendants it has come to the present owner, Robert C. Winthrop.
185. Five Silver Communion Cups.
1. "The gift of Dea. Samuel Stone to Lexington Church, 1715."
2. "The gift of Mr. Samuel Haugh to Lexington Church, 1727."
3. "The gift of Deacon Joseph Brown to the Church of Christ in Lexington, 1759."
4. "L. C." (Lexington Church.)
5. "L. C." " " "
Church of the Redeemer, Lexington.
186. Pewter Flagon and Plate belonging to the original Communion Service of the Lexington Church,
First Church, Lexington.
187. Tongue of the Old Church Bell which, on the morning of April 19, 1775, sounded the Alarm summoning the Citizens of Lexington to rally and resist the approach of the British, E. G. Porter.
188. Minutes of a Sermon, 1775, Josiah A. Stearns.

189. Massachusetts Script, 1780; Maryland Script, 1770, . . . Josiah A. Stearns.
190. Old Sign of the Munroe Tavern, Lexington; Headquarters and Hospital of Lord Percy, April 19, 1775, Wm. and J. S. Munroe, Lexington.
191. Cartouche-Box taken from a dead British soldier on the eve of April 19, 1775. Stains of blood still visible on the belt, Geo. H. Gray, Arlington.
192. Sermon preached at Lexington, April 19, 1777, by Samuel Cooke, A.M., Pastor of the Second Church, Cambridge. Psalms 5: 6, E. G. Porter.
193. Sermon preached at Lexington, April 19, 1783, by Zabdiel Adams, Pastor of the Church in Lunenburg. I. Kings 12: 15, " "
194. Engraving of Cotton Mather, 1727, C. B. Brooks.
195. Engraving of Rev. William Cooper, 1743, " "
196. Engraving of Rev. William Welsted, 1753, " "
197. Portrait of John Adams (aged 90) by Stuart, Mrs. C. F. Adams.
198. Portrait of George Washington by R. Peale, Mrs. F. Gray.
199. Portrait of Gen. Heath, Mrs. G. Brewer.
200. Portrait of Ebenezer Dorr, one of the messengers captured with Paul Revere, Miss Dorr.
201. Portrait of Abigail Cunningham, wife of Ebenezer Dorr, " " 202. Portrait of Chief-Justice Sewall, the first Chief-Justice of Massachusetts, Miss Ridgway.
203. Portrait of John Scollay, Chairman of the Selectmen of Boston from 1774 to 1790, by Copley, J. Bigelow.
204. Portrait of Mary Scollay, wife of John, by Copley, " "
205. Portrait of Col. Pickering, by Stuart, Miss Pratt.
206. Portrait of John Winthrop, R. C. Winthrop.
207. Portrait of Joseph Green, by Copley, Samuel A. Green.

FAMILY PAPERS FORMERLY THE PROPERTY OF DAVID JEFFRIES, ESQ., TOWN TREASURER OF BOSTON, LATELY FOUND UNDER THE FLOOR OF THE ATTIC OF FANEUIL HALL. NOS. 218—227.

218. Volume of Papers belonging to the Hon. John Usher, Treasurer of New England, afterwards Lieutenant-Governor of New Hampshire, 1686-8, Walter Lloyd Jeffries.
219. Volume of Letters written to Gov. Usher (Lieut.-Gov. Tailer, Judge Byfield, Judge Sewall, President Wadsworth, and others among the writers), 1676-1724, " "
220. Volume of Papers and Letters belonging to Gov. Usher (Letters from Gov. Andros among them), 1680-1724, " "
221. Volume of Deeds and Petitions of Gov. Usher's (including Petition to the King and the answer of the King and Privy Council, signed by Chas. Montague, afterwards Lord Halifax; also Indian deeds from Wannalansett, Chief Sachem of the Merrimack Indians, etc.; Papers of Gov. Dudley, Col. Lidget, Daniel Gookin, and others), 1680-1724, " "
222. Volume of papers of David Jeffries, Esq., and Charles Shepreeve, Esq., 1690-1720, " "
223. Volume of the Papers of Col. Charles Lidget, 1660-1720, " "
224. Volume of the Deeds of David Jeffries, Esq., 1680-1725, " "
225. Volume of Letters to the Hon. John Jeffries, 1710-1760, " "
226. Four Letters to Maj. Benj. Davis, from Gov. Salt-onstall, of Conn., in 1700; Duncan Campbell, Post-master of New England, 1700; Wm. Sharpas, of New York, 1700, and an account of the depredations of the Pirates near Philadelphia in 1698. Three Acknowledgments and Receipts from Richard Walderen, 1652, Wm. Davis, 1675, and Wm.

- Russell, 1660, Walter Lloyd Jeffries.
227. Two Letters from Gov. Jonathan Belcher, of Massachusetts, to David Jeffries, Esq., 1756-57. Two Letters from Lt.-Gov. Jonathan Belcher, of Nova Scotia, to David Jeffries, Esq., 1759-60. Three Papers signed by Andrew or Jonathan Belcher. Five Papers of the Ship "Newcastle," written and signed by Jno. Hincks, Councillor of New Hampshire. Three Papers relating to the Old South Church, 1672 and 1781. Deed of Gov. Allen, of New Hampshire, 1704. Two Papers of the "Pearl," Brigantine, 1710. Agreement in regard to selling Slaves in Boston, 1682. Bill of Bart. Green for printing Books for Cotton Mather, 1714. Proposals for printing a Play, written in Boston, 1768, by a British Soldier. Deposition of Phesant Eastwick before Edw. Tyng, Asst., 1677. Letter of Mrs. Elizabeth Poole, 1644, " " 228. Silver Porringer, made by Paul Revere, Mrs. John Jeffries.
229. Shoe Buckles of Capt. Davis, worn in Concord Fight, Mrs. J. T. Woodbury, Milford.
230. The Sugar Plumb. "A sweet amusement for leisure hours, being an entertaining and instructive Collection of Stories," 1787, W. H. Denny.
231. Ornaments belonging to the family of Wm. Sheaffe, Deputy Collector under the last Royal Collector of the Port of Boston, exhibited by his granddaughter, Mrs. Henry Loring, Brookline.
232. Portrait of Mrs. William Sheaffe, " " "
233. Part of Wedding Dress sent by Lafayette to Miss Margaret Sheaffe, daughter of the above, " " "
234. Locket, Miniature of Elizabeth Dana, daughter of Wm. Ellery, and wife of Francis Dana, 1779, Richard H. Dana.

235. Commission of Joseph Mansfield, Jr., as Ensign of the 2d Regiment; signed by Jona. Trumbull, 1774, E. Blakeslee.
236. Portrait of Fisher Ames; copy by Newton, Boston Athenæum.
237. Portrait of Mrs. Hancock, by Copley; from the Wentworth House, Portsmouth, 238. Portrait of Mary Ann Wolcott (Mrs. Gov. Chauncy Goodrich), J. H. Wolcott.
239. A Prince of Russia; painting on glass; taken from an English barque by Capt. Hallet in the Revolution, L. P. Morrison.
240. Russian Princess, companion to the above, " "
241. Cannon Ball, E. N. Coburn.
242. Relic from Battle-ground of Bunker Hill, " "
243. Silver Tankard, presented at the building of the "Ann Gally," in Boston, 1726, Aug. Shurtleff, Brookline.
244. Portrait of Dr. John Homans, Surgeon in the Revolutionary War; copied from a miniature painted 1790, Charles Homans.
245. Silver Tankard, owned and used by Gov. Simon Bradstreet, with his Coat-of-Arms [1657], Samuel Bradstreet.
246. Silver Sugar-Tongs, once owned by Rev. Simon Bradstreet, Minister First Church, Charlestown, 1698-1741, " "
247. Silver Creamer, owned and used by Mary Bradstreet, who married Rev. Hull Abbot, of Charlestown, in 1731, " "
248. Silver Cake Plate, owned by Rev. Hull Abbot, Minister of First Church, in Charlestown, 1724-1774, " "
249. Original MS "Meditations," etc., of Anne Bradstreet [1664], wife of Gov. Simon Bradstreet, and daughter of Gov. Thomas Dudley, " "

250. Gold Sleeve Buttons worn by Dr. Walter Hastings of y^e 27th Regt. of Foot (American) in y^e Battle of Bunker Hill, Walter Hastings (his grandson).
251. Silver Olive Spoon, formerly owned by Mary Bradstreet, who married Rev. Hull Abbot, in 1731, . . . Samuel Bradstreet.
252. Embroidery, by a member of Bradstreet Family about 1740, “ “
253. Very large Silver Tankard; an heir-loom in y^e Bradstreet family, 1730, “ “
254. Model (made from wood of y^e Frigate “Constitution,”) of y^e First Monument erected on Breed’s Hill; surmounted by a Grape-shot fired during y^e Battle of Bunker Hill, H. H. Edes.
- 255, 256. Chair Coverings, wrought by Sarah Emerson about 1690, Samuel Bradstreet.
257. Portion of a set of Bed Curtains wrought by Sarah Emerson about 1690, and since preserved by her Descendants in y^e family of Bradstreet, “ “
258. Continental Money, Charles Buck.
259. Portrait of Major Thomas Savage, one of the builders of the Old South, 1670; born in London, 1608; died in Boston, 1682, Henry Lee.
260. Portrait, by Copley, of the Hon. Jonathan Jackson, born 1743, died 1810. Member of Congress, 1781–1782; appointed by Washington, in 1789, U. S. Marshal in the District of Massachusetts, “ “
261. “Doctrine of the Covenant of the Redemption,” by Samuel Willard, Pastor of the Old South Church, containing an autograph of Thomas Brattle, one of the founders of Brattle St. Church, Abraham E. Cutter.
262. Old Punch Bowl, one hundred years old, painted in China from designs sent out, Henry Lee.
263. “A Broadside.” Important Advice of Cornwallis

- and his Army at Yorktown, and a Poem by a young Lady on hearing the guns firing and bells ringing, Abraham E. Cutter.
264. Portrait, engraved, of Rev. Benjamin Colman, D.D., " "
265. "Fountain Opened," by Sam. Willard, Pastor Old South Church, containing Poem on cover upon his Sickness, 1700, " "
266. "The Souldier Defended and Directed." Sermon at Artillery Election, by Ebenezer Pemberton, Pastor of the Old South, 1701, " "
267. Two Sermons on Earthquake, 1727, by Thomas Prince, Pastor of Old South, " "
268. Portrait of Sam. Adams, engraved by Samuel C. Okey, 1775, H. H. Edes.
269. Beads which belonged to Bethiah Sears, wife of Capt. Sears, who commanded an American Privateer in Revolutionary War, Annie Lyman Sears.
270. Wedding Ring of Sarah Pickering, mother of Col. Timothy Pickering, who died December, 1747, aged eighty-six years, Mrs. Philip H. Sears.
271. Portrait of Gen. Warren, by Copley, J. Collins Warren.
272. Picture, Burning of Charlestown, by Trumbull, . . . " "
273. Sword of Gen. Warren, " "
274. Oration on Boston Massacre, by Gen. Warren, in the Old South; original Manuscript, " "
275. "Boke of Psalms," carried to England by a Private engaged at Bunker Hill, who said it was taken out of the pocket of Gen. Warren after he was slain. Dr. Wilton purchased it, and sent it to Dr. Gordon, of Roxbury, by whom it was given to Dr. John Warren, brother of Gen. Warren, . . . " "
276. Day Book of Gen. Warren, " "
277. Grenadier Cap from Braintree, " "

278. Autograph, Gen. Joseph Warren, J. Collins Warren.
279. Photographs, Gen. Warren's Skull, showing bullet-holes, " "
280. Memorial of Warren; old print, " "
281. Sword taken by Nathaniel Bemis, of Watertown, from a British officer whom he shot on the retreat from Concord and Lexington, April 19, 1775, C. V. Bemis, Medford.
282. Ring, given by Sir W. Pepperell to one of the pallbearers at the funeral of his son, J. S. Locke.
283. Fairfield chair; this chair has been in use since 1763; it was property of Rev. John Fairfield, grandfather of Gov. Fairfield, of Maine, " " 284. Apron worn by Mrs. Reed, of Lexington, at the time of the Battle; woven and spun by herself,
Mrs. Harrison Pierce, Lexington.
285. Manuscript Sermon, preached by Rev. J. Fairfield, 1780, J. S. Locke.
286. Memorandum Book of Rev. Jonas Clark, in his hand-writing, 1754—1785, H. G. Clark.
287. Quill Pen, made and used by Rev. Jonas Clark, 1776, " "
288. Sun Glass used in the War for lighting fires and pipes at the Hartwell Tavern, between Lexington and Concord, E. G. Porter.
289. Photograph of Col. Joseph Ward, R. R. Bishop.
290. Piece of a Table Cloth spun and woven by Mrs.
Wm. Emery, Jaffrey, N. H., 1799, Mrs. L. G. Robbins.
291. Receipted Bill for the Paper on which was printed the Money issued by the Colony of Massachusetts Bay, Mrs. John Revere.
292. Allegory of the Year 1765, designed and engraved
by Paul Revere, " "
293. Boston Massacre, drawn by Paul Revere, which has always remained in the Revere family, " "

294. Silver Waiter, Mrs. John Jeffries.
295. Engraved portrait of Henry Laurens, A. E. Cutter.
296. A George Washington Button (with "Long live the President" round the edge), W. P. Innis.
297. President Holyoke's Chair, H. H. Edes.
298. Fan belonging to the wife of Gen. Knox, Mrs. T. Motley.
299. Jefferson's Cane; afterwards used by President
Madison, T. J. Coolidge.
300. Gravy Boat, owned by John Leverett, showing his crest, Madam Jeffries.
301. Impression of Washington's Seal, W. L. Jeffries.
302. China Waiter of Major Samuel Shaw's, with the Cincinnati Arms, Mrs. G. Howland Shaw.
303. Letter of Gen. Washington's to Jno. Greenwood, Mrs. James Lodge.
304. Revolutionary Teaspoons, A. Shurtleff.
305. Essex County Yeoman's Sitting-Room, from the "Indian Hill Farm" Collection, Ben: Perley Poore, near Newburyport.

Including

Fire-place from the old Tracy House, in Newburyport; Andirons, Fender, Tea-kettle and Stand, Shovel, Tongs, Bellows, Brush, etc.
Picture of Charles II. when a boy.
Portraits of the Marquis of Granby and Lord Anson.
Old Family Mirror and Candlesticks.
Home-made Rag Carpets.
Cellaret (ancient Refrigerator); very rare.
Desk, Table, and corner Writing Chair; all with claw feet.
Pair Fire Screens.
Old English Clock.
Pair Knife Boxes.
"Beaufet" (Cupboard), containing old Pewter, a Set of the Dodge
Family China, a French Pitcher (Washington and Marie Antoinette), China Castor, Punch Bowl and Ladle, and a variety of old China.

Another "Beaufet," containing Venetian Glass, Decanters, Mugs, and fine specimens of glass known as "Rummers."

Scarlet Cloth Cloak of Gov. Bowdoin.

Cocked Hat of the period.

Scarlet Embroidered Curtains from the White House, as furnished for the first time, under the Administration of John Adams.

Old Engraving of English Rural Life.

Fire Arm (for Buckshot) used by the First Light Infantry Troops in the World, in one of the early Expeditions fitted out in New England against the French in Canada.

Sword carried by Col. Robert Dodge, of Hamilton, at Bunker Hill.

Blunderbuss.

Halberd.

Two Spontoons.

Two Swords; very old.

306. Essex County Yeoman's Kitchen of the time of the Revolution, from the "Indian Hill Farm"

Collection, Ben: Perley Poore, near Newburyport.

Including

A capacious Fire-place, with Andirons carrying the Spit, a Crane with Pot-hooks and Trammels, Dinner-pot, Tea-kettle, Camp-kettle (of Alexander Hamilton), four Preserving Spiders, Frying Pan, Meat Fork, Drying-hook, Toasting-iron, Bellows, and Tea-kettle on Stand.

Mantel-shelf, with Coffee-mill and Iron Candlestick.

Three Muskets, one of which (the lower one) was used in Col. Gerrish's Regt. Mass. Guards, and the other two in Col. Robert Dodge's Regt.

Cavalry Sabre carried in Washington's Life Guards.

Four Horse-pistols.

Iron Light-stand made by a West Newbury Blacksmith for Daniel Noyes Poore (Harvard College, 1777).

Butcher's Cleaver.

Warming Pan.

Great Wheel and little Wheel.

Reel.

Foot-Stove.

Flax-hatchel and Cards.

Basket and Trice of Corn.

Carpenter's Tools.

Steelyards.

Carved Oak-chest brought by the Poore family from England in 1640.

Towel-roller woven and spun by Judith Poore in 1774.

Rolling-pins.

Chopping Knife

Ladle and Skimmer.

Coffee-stirrer.

Candle-mould.

Toaster.

Cider-noggin.

Dresser, stocked with Pewter Plates, Bowls, Porringers, Mugs, Knives, Forks, Spoons, Brass and Wooden Mortars, and Candlesticks.

Two very old Chairs; leather back and seat.

Large Oak Arm Chair which came in the ship "Hector" (the first vessel that landed at Newbury), brought by the Dole family.

Centipede Kitchen Table.

Saddle-bags of Gen. Knox.

Revolutionary Cartridge-box, Powder-horn, and Canteen.

307. THE MASSACHUSETTS SPY, or THOMAS'S BOSTON
JOURNAL. A Weekly, Political and Commercial Paper:—Open to all Parties, but Influenced by None. "Do Thou Great Liberty inspire our Souls,—and make our Lives in Thy Possession happy,—or our Deaths glorious in thy just Defence." Bound Vol. from March 4, 1773, to March 3, 1774, E. I. Thomas, Brookline.
308. Large copy of the Bible "printed at the press in Worcester Massachusetts by Isaiah Thomas.

- Sold by him in Worcester: and by him and Company, at Faust's Statue, No. 45 Newbury St. Boston, MDC'CXCI." Autograph Inscription: "The Gift of Isaiah Thomas Esq^r to his much respected Mother-in-Law Rebecca Fowle 1792 — Not to be sold, but retained in the family. For one of my son's sons." Coat-of-Arms, with motto: "Nec elatus nec dejectus," E. I. Thomas, Brookline.
309. Smaller Bible, "printed at Worcester, Massachusetts, by Isaiah Thomas. Sold by him in Worcester, by Wholesale, Bound or in Sheets. Sold also by said Thomas, and Andrews in Boston, and by the Booksellers in the United States of Columbia,—1797," " "
310. Staff carried by Gen. John Sullivan when Governor of N. H., J. and E. Sullivan.
311. Spurs worn by Gen. John Sullivan, " "
312. Watch carried by Gen. John Sullivan, " "
313. Portrait of Gen. John Sullivan, by Tenney, after sketch by Trumbull, " "
314. Pistols carried by Gen. John Sullivan, during the War, " "
315. MS. Orders from Col. Benedict Arnold, Oct. 17, 1775, E. I. Thomas, Brookline.
316. Eleven Ancient Pamphlets, E. N. Coburn.
- (1.) Dr. Sewall's Sermon on the Death of the Rev. Thomas Prince, 1758. Phil. i., 21.
 - (2.) Sermon preached by Andrew Eliot, D.D., on the Execution of Levi Ames, who suffered Death for Burglary, Oct. 21, 1773, aged 22.
 - (3.) Discourse delivered by Elijah Fitch, A.M., at Hopkinton, March 24, 1776, being the next Sabbath following the precipitate Flight of the British Troops from Boston.
 - (4.) Sermon on the Death of Cotton Matther, D.D., F.R.S., by Thomas Prince, A.M. John v., 35. Boston. 1728.

- (5.) Sermon on the Death of Increase Mather, D.D., by Benjamin Colman. Matt. xi., 9; x., 41. Boston. 1723.
 - (6.) Original Stamp Act (in black-letter type), Anno Quinto Georgii III. Regis. London. 1765.
 - (7.) Proceedings of Court Martial at Cambridge, Jan. 20, &c. 1778, upon the Trial of Col. David Henley.
 - (8.) Two Fast Day Discourses delivered July 14, 1774, by Peter Whitney, A.M., Northborough.
 - (9.) Dr. Joseph Sewall's Sermon, preached at the Thursday-Lecture, in Boston, Sept. 16, 1762, before the Great and General Court on the joyful news of the Reduction of the Havannah. Matt. vi., 13.
 - (10.) Prayer composed for the benefit of the Soldiery in the American Army, by Abiel Leonard, A. M., Chaplain to Gen. Putnam's Regiment. Cambridge. 1775.
 - (11.) "The first Book of the American Chronicles of the Times." Boston. 1775.
317. Letters written to Isaiah Thomas, Worcester, from Maj. Ben. Russell (dated Camp Orange-Town, Sept. 29, 1780, giving information of B. Arnold's defection; also from John Hancock, Rufus King, B. Franklin, T. Jefferson, and J. Madison, . . . E. L. Thomas, Brooklyn.
 318. Silver Snuff-box presented to David Jeffries in 1701, with his Coat-of-Arms, John Jeffries.
 319. Silver Tea Urn belonging to John and Abigail Adams, Charles Francis Adams.
 320. Silver Tankard belonging to John Adams, . . . " " "
 321. Silver Coffee-pot belonging to John and Abigail Adams, " " "
 322. Silver Tankard belonging to John Adams, . . . " " "
 323. Communion Flagon belonging to the New North Church, whose minister, the Rev. Andrew Eliot, was the only Congregational clergyman remaining in Boston during the siege. Now the property of King's Chapel, H. W. Foote.

324. The Register of Marriages at King's Chapel, 1718—1841; containing Dr. Caner's note on the "unnatural Rebellion" in March, 1776, H. W. Foote.
325. Carved Ladle made by Caleb Foote, a soldier in the army at Cambridge, and subsequently captured by the British while serving as master on the privateer "Lark." Ladle carved in Prison at Plymouth, England, 1779—1780, " "
326. Engraving of Rev. Henry Caner, D.D., Rector of King's Chapel, 1747—1776, " " 327. Leather Trunk belonging to Phillips family, of An-dross, 1678, Mrs. Hamilton Willis.
328. Arm Chair belonging to Chief-Justice Sewell, " "
329. Iron Fire Back, 1690, " "
330. Couch, 1654, " "
331. Ball taken from the body of Gen. Joseph Warren, 18th June, 1775, Mrs. Montague.
332. Pair of Silver Candlesticks brought over from England by David Jeffries, in 1677; afterwards the property of David Jeffries, Treasurer of Boston during the Revolution. The arms are those of Jeffries, Usher, Lidget, and Clarke, Madam Jeffries.
333. A piece of the Dress worn by Dorothy Quincy when married to John Hancock, Mrs. Sarah Austin.
334. Vest presented to Gen. John Sullivan by Gen. Lafayette after his return to France, J. and E. Sullivan.
335. Dress worn by Catharine Livingston, daughter of William Livingston, Gov. of New Jersey, Miss M. B. Sedgwick.
336. Waistcoat worn by Matthew Ridley, " "
337. Two stamps issued under the Stamp Act, 1765, with a Table of Prices, etc., Samuel A. Green.
338. Toy Gun, owned by Capt. Merriam, the Boy-captain of Lexington,

On the 18th of April, 1775, two British soldiers were discovered reconnoitering the town disguised in long cloaks; a gust of wind disclosed their uniforms. On the morning of the 19th little Capt. Merriam seized this gun and rushed to the green where the men were mustering, and watched the advance of regulars from the steps of the Buckman Tavern,

Mrs. Stetson, Lexington.

339. Halberd used in Battle of Lexington, " " " 340. Watch and Chain brought over by Gen. Hull for the wife of Col. Joseph Hull, D. Ward Spencer.
341. Col. Joseph Ward's Silver Tankard, made by Paul
Revere, " "
342. Pistols presented by Gen. Washington to Col. Joseph Ward for meritorious service at Bunker Hill, D. Ward.
343. China Set belonging to Col. Joseph Ward, "
344. Col. Joseph Ward's Silver Ladle, made by Paul Revere, "
345. Two Silver Spoons, "
346. Col. Ward's Military Vest, "
347. Wedding Skirt and Slippers of Mrs. Col. Ward, "
348. Letter from George Washington to Col. Ward, "
349. Col. Ward's Knee Buckles and Sleeve Buttons, "
350. Letter from Parson Eckley, of the Old South Church, to Col. Ward, "
351. One of a set of Wine Cups used by Col. Timothy Pickering while in the Revolutionary Army, Miss M. P. Nichols.
352. Picture of Washington's Tomb, with Mourners, Mrs. Stetson, Lexington.
353. Three Newspapers, Miss Merriam.
354. Proclamation for a Public Fast, read in Bedford,
Mass., March 13, 1742, by Rev. Mr. Bowes, " "
355. Four old Revolutionary Cups and Saucers, and one Cake Plate; initial, T. ♠; belonging to a family in Newburyport, Mrs. G. W. Hale.
356. Washington Pitcher, belonging originally to the Howland family, of Newport, " "

357. Wedgewood Cup with Portrait of Queen Caroline; belonged to Matthew Byles, Mrs. G. W. Wales.
- 358-362. Five Plates with, different views, " "
363. Miniature of Gen. Washington, presented by him to Gen. David Cobb, G. A. Black, Jr.
364. Rapier of John Hancock, Henry G. Clark.
365. Dress Sword; one of the four presented by Lafayette to the Staff of Gen. Washington, " "
366. Child's Chair from house of Rev. Jonas Clark, " "
367. Chair from Rev. Jonas Clark's house, Lexington, " "
368. Cannon-Ball dug up on the Camp Ground of Col.
Prescott's Regiment in A. A. Lawrence's grove, at Longwood, by Wm. L. Green, A. A. Lawrence.
369. Pocket Book used by Maj. Samuel Lawrence, of Groton, while Adjutant (1775-7), for carrying orders. He served at Bunker Hill, and this was probably used on the day of the Battle, " " 370. A Sword belonging to Col. Jackson, and carried by him at the Battle of Lexington, and subsequently during the Revolution. Col. Jackson was a private in a Company of Minute Men in Newton. At the dawn of the 19th April the signal was given that the British Troops were on their march for Lexington. Col. Jackson was chosen Captain for the day, and instantly ordered his Minute Men to arms. "The time for talking is past, the time for fighting has come." J. M. C. Hyde.
371. Copy of the Massachusetts "Spy," W. E. Barker.
372. Powder Horn said to have been carried in the French War and in the Revolution, Oldin Nichols.
373. Portrait of Paul Revere, Mechanics' Association.
374. Portrait of Ben. Russell, " "
375. Portrait of Gen. David Cobb, by G. Stuart, George F. Wilde.

376. Sash worn by Gen. Cobb in the Revolutionary War, . . . G. N. Black, Jr.
377. Snuff Box; belonged to James Otis, . . . Mrs. James W. Otis, N. Y.
378. Pitch Pipe, . . . Mrs. H. B. Poore, Brookline.
379. Tomb of Washington, . . . T. E. Francis, Brookline.
380. Large Card "Memento of the Revolution, 1775," . . . W. P. Innis.
381. Coat and Waistcoat of B. Joy, Consul General to the East, under Washington, . . . C. H. Joy.
382. Rapier of B. Joy; Goldsmith's Hall mark, 1787, . . . " "
383. Shoe Buckles of B. Joy, . . . " "
384. Watch of B. Joy, . . . " "
385. Consular Certificate of B. Joy; with signature of Washington and Jefferson, . . . " " 386. Jewelry belonging to Mrs. Joseph Barrell, mother of B. Joy, 1777, . . . " "
387. Bill for digging a Grave of a Negro Woman, . . . E. A. Coburn.
388. Coffee-mill of the Revolutionary period, . . . J. M. Shaw.
389. Three Letters of Sampson Salter Blowers to Dr.
John Jeffries, 1775-78. He, with Adams and Quincy, defended the British Soldiers of the Boston Massacre, . . . B. Joy Jeffries.
390. Ring, containing hair of Gen. James and Mercy
Warren, given by them to Abigail Adams, . . . Winslow Warren.
391. Ring, containing hair of John and Abigail Adams, presented to Mercy Warren, . . . " "
392. Miniature of Col. Joseph Ward, painted by Dun-kelly, 1789, . . . Mrs. Osgood, Cohasset.
393. Miniature of Mrs. Joseph Ward, . . . " "
394. Spectacles, worn about one hundred years ago by Elizabeth (Dudley) Scarborough, . . . Dudley R. Child.
395. Child's Court Suit, worn about 1776 by Dudley
Cotton, a great-grandson of Gen. Jos. Dudley, . . . " " 396. Sampler wrought in 1773, . . . Mrs. James Lodge.
397. Bowl. "Wedgwood Tea Party," . . . " "

398. "Ship Bowl;" Lowestoft China, Mrs. James Lodge.
399. Honiton Lace from the Christening Blanket of
Gov. Hancock's son, Mrs. Wm. Greenough.
400. Engraved Portrait of Major S. Shaw, Mrs. G. H. Shaw.
401. Engraved Portrait of Gen. Knox, " " "
402. Watch worn by Joseph Barrell, 1776, C. H. Joy.
403. Miniature of Hannah Barrell, wife of Benjamin Joy, " "
404. Weather Report, Interrupted by the Revolution, on Nov. 4, 1776, beginning again fourteen years afterwards in 1790, kept by Dr. John Jeffries, B. J. Jeffries.
405. Record Book of the First Church in Braintree, and Family Records, 1640, Walter Lloyd Jeffries.
406. Sword used by Thomas Pincin (or Pynchon) in King Philip's War, and afterwards by a younger Thomas Pincin, a minute-man during the Revolution, George N. Bramhall.
407. Spurs given by Washington to Lieut. Thomas Lamb, of Boston, taking them from his own boots on the occasion of sending Lieut. Lamb from Valley Forge for provisions for the army, 1778, H. F. Lamb.
408. Commission of Thomas Lamb, " "
409. Locket containing hair of Samuel Adams, John W. and B. L. Randall.
411. Letter from John Hancock; Letter from Timothy Pickering, H. F. Lamb.
412. Old Bill for Punch and Flip to the First Church in Salem, " "
413. Silver Tankard of William and Elizabeth Dudley, 1721, D. R. Child.
414. John Alden's Writing-Desk, Samuel Alden.
415. Mayflower Cradle and Blanket, Mrs. Mary Cushman Kingston.
416. Portrait of General Amasa Davis, by Stuart, Mrs. Edwin Lemist.
417. Uniform of General Davis, " " "

418. Portrait of Rev. Dr. Byles, Miss Kate O. Stone.
419. Wedding Fan of Mrs. Byles, " " "
420. Wedding Gloves of Mrs. Byles, " " "
421. Platter used at the Hotel in Lexington by the British on their retreat and afterwards thrown into the fire, belonging to William Munroe, W. A. Munroe.
422. Gun used at Bunker Hill, Charles Lyman.
423. Pass from the Diary of a British Officer; Robert Willmott's Account of Dr. Warren's Oration in Old South Church, March, 1774, Miss E. E. Dana.
424. Pass from same, Battle of Bunker Hill, " " 425. Pass from same, Account of Battle of Lexington and Concord, " "
426. Double-headed shot dug up near Charlestown Square where the conflagration commenced at the Battle of Bunker Hill, probably fired from one of the enemy's ships, W. W. Wheildon.
427. Shot dug up in Charlestown; the broad arrow shows that it came from the British fleet, " "
428. Lithograph of Dorothy Quincy, afterward Mrs.
John Hancock, afterward Mrs. Capt. James
Scott, Madam Jeffries.
429. Box containing a skull with bones, buttons, etc., dug up near the corner of Eden and Bunker Hill Streets, Charlestown, near the line of the rail-fence where the great battle of the day was fought. The ball was found in the head, and appears to have glanced over the stone-wall before it struck the head, W. W. Wheildon.
430. Two Fire-buckets and wand used 1775, W. C. Codman.
431. Photograph of church in which Gov. Bradford was baptized, C. F. Bradford.
432. Revolutionary Pitcher, J. M. Shaw.

433. Commission of Samuel Adams, Miss B. L. Randall.
434. Porringer made by Paul Revere, marked with his own and his wife's initials, Mrs. J. C. Revere.
435. Paul Revere's Buckles, " " "
436. Miniature of Mrs. Paul Revere, painted by Copley, " " "
437. Cradle Quilt used in the Hutchinson family, . . . " " "
438. Lock of hair taken from the head of Randolph
Farnum, 104 years old in 1860, — — —
439. Mortar, Ichabod Peterson.
440. Ancient Dagger, W. W. Wheldon.
441. Heliotypes, Beacon Hill Monument, " "
442. Major Andre's Hair. A twenty-dollar note, John Gray.
443. Cane, {
444. Tankard, { of Matthew Byles, F. A. Hall.
445. Snuff-box, }
446. Quiver and Arrows used in Indian warfare, 1623, . . . Peter Hobart.
447. Powder-horn, " "
448. Soldier's Letter, John A. Robertson.
449. Copy of Independent Chronicle, 1795, E. H. Weston.
450. Sword of Gen. John Glover, of Marblehead, Crocker.
451. Silver Cake-basket, imported by Mrs. Lydia Hancock in 1753. It passed thence into the possession of John Hancock, and from his wife to Mrs. Nancy Salisbury, who gave it to the present exhibitor, Mrs. Sarah Austin.
452. Unknown old Portrait, Mrs. C. A. Burditt.
453. Pair of Glass Salt-cellar, used on the table of Gov.
Hancock, G. H. Rivers.
454. Pitcher made by Paul Revere, with the Bill receipted by him, H. H. Edes.
455. Shoes worn by Mrs. Ebenezer Dorr, 1760-70, Miss C. Dorr,
456. Silver Shoe-buckles worn by Ebenezer Dorr,
1760-80, " "
457. Infant's Mitt worn by Mather Byles, 1706, H. H. Edes.

458. Cards of Invitation to a dinner of a political character, in Boston, 1775-76, Miss C. Dorr
459. Sampler wrought by Mrs. Ebenezer Dorr, about 1750, " "
460. Infant's Clothing, preserved in the family of Ebenezer Dorr: Cap, dates 1710-20; Shirt, dates 1760-70, " "
461. Elbow Sleeves with knife-plating, 1750-1760, " "
462. Pipe taken from an Indian, of the Peqawket tribe, after the Battle of Lovewell's Pond, 1725, George F. Emery
463. War Maps of the Revolution, belonging to Surgeon John Jeffries, B. Joy Jeffrie
464. Bound Volume of the "N. E. Chronicle" or the "Essex Gazette," Cambridge, May 12th, 1775, April 4th, 1776, James F. Hunnswell
465. A series of Folios of Autograph Letters with inlaid Portraits, including Gen. Washington, Benjamin Franklin, Samuel Adams, John Adams, John Hancock, Thomas Jefferson, Timothy Pickering, Gen. Knox, Gen. Lincoln, Gen. Sullivan, Gen. Schuyler, Gen. Steuben, Gen. Alex. Hamilton, Gen. Lafayette, Gen. Burgoyne, Thadeus Kosciuszko, Marquis Cornwallis, John Paul Jones, Robert Morris, John Jay, Timothy Pickering, Oliver Wolcott, Elias Boudinot, M. P. K'umara
466. Paste Brooch, owned by Col. Briggs Alden (fourth from John Alden), Mrs L. P. Moore
467. Bill of Dues to the "Honorable Society for Propagating the Gospel," written and signed by Samuel Sewall, 1700, Walter Lloyd Jeffries
468. Letter from Samuel Willis, Secretary of Connecticut in 1687, " "
469. Silver Tankard, owned by Dr. John Jeffries, Surgeon in the British forces during the Revolution; marked with his crest, John Jeffries

470. Silver Spoon (one of a set), owned by James Lloyd, M. D.; banished from Boston, 1775; marked with his crest, Mrs. John Jeffries.
471. Paper, written and signed by Samuel Adams, . . . Walter Lloyd Jeffries.
472. Silver Pepper Pot, owned by Mr. Cummering about 1700, and later by his daughter, Mrs. Lloyd, . . . Mrs. John Jeffries.
473. Ends of the Dining Table of John Hancock, from the Hancock House, on Beacon St., B. Joy Jeffries.
474. Old bevelled Mirror, owned by Mrs. John Amory, . . Madam Jeffries.
475. Two Silver Spoons (from sets), formerly owned by Dr. John Jeffries; marked with his crest, " "
476. Pair of Silver Salts, owned by Dr. John Jeffries; marked with his crest, 1784-5, " "
477. Silver Sugar Tongs, owned by Dr. John Jeffries; marked with his crest, " "
478. Green Silk Banner which hung from the Pulpit in the Old South Church on the fiftieth [50th] anniversary of our Declaration of Independence. It has been preserved in the family of the decorator, and is now exhibited by his son, S. T. Sharp.
479. Large Cake-basket, formerly owned by Mr. Amory 1752, Madam Jeffries.
480. Pair of Silver Candlesticks, formerly owned by Mr. Amory, 1741-2, " "
481. Pair Silver Candlesticks formerly owned by Dr. John Jeffries, made before 1675, " "
482. Large Silver Tankard, formerly owned by Dr. John Jeffries; marked with his crest " "
483. Old Silver Saucepan; an heirloom in the Jeffries family, " "
484. Gravy-boat, owned by John Leverett, Governor of Mass., 1673-79, " "
485. Silver Portrait of David Jeffries, Jr.; made in London, in 1716, " "

486. Profile of Major Stanley, afterwards Earl of Derby, done by Major André while the British Army was in Philadelphia, and given to Miss Rebecca Redman, 1777, Foxhall A. Parker, U. S. Navy.
487. Profiles of Capt. Butwill and Major André, cut by Major André for Miss Redman, 1778, Foxhall A. Parker.
488. Autograph of Major André; lines written to Miss Redman, 1778, " "
489. Invitation to the Meschianza, May 18, 1778, " "
490. Private Writing-desk of John Hancock, containing a Dressing-case and Powder-box, Wm. R. Hubbard.
492. Washington Pitcher, Samuel Bradstreet.
493. Tobacco-box of mahogany, used by Rev. Simon Bradstreet, minister of Charlestown, 1698-1741, " "
494. A Smoker's Pipe-tongs; owned and used by Rev. Simon Bradstreet, " "
495. Profile Intaglio of Major Small, by Tassie, 1779, B. Jay Jeffries.
496. Four Portraits of a Loyalist Son of an Old South Deacon, taken during and after the Revolution, . . . Madam Jeffrie.
497. One Volume of the Correspondence of the Generals of the Revolutionary Army with Gen. Sullivan, Thomas C. Amory.
498. Two Vests of Gen. Sullivan, " "
499. Slippers worn by the wife of Gen. Sullivan at her marriage, " "
500. Original Grant of Land in South Carolina in 1699, . . Nathan Appleton.
501. A Quilted Silk Petticoat, one hundred and fifty years old, worn by Miss Dorothy Wharton, a cousin of Gov. Hutchinson, and worn at his levees, . . . Miss Dove.
502. Needlework belonging to Miss Julia Wadsworth Knox, daughter of General Knox, " "
503. Bill of the Sexton for ringing the bells at the death of George H., Elbridge S. Strout.

504. Silver Coffee-pot, 1750, Madam Jeffries.
505. Old Watch, 1750, Miss Jeffries.
506. Silver Cream Pitcher, very old, Madam Jeffries.
507. Large Silver Waiter, 1752, Arms, " "
508. Silver Punch Strainer, 1771-2, " "
509. Silver Waiter, arms of "von Gayer," 1737-8, " "
510. Three Mourning Rings belonging to Rev. Simon Bradstreet, Charlestown, 1698-1741, Sam'l Bradstreet.
511. "A Circumstantial [British] Account of an attack that happened on the 19th of April, 1775, on His Majesty's Troops by a number of the people of the Province of Massachusetts Bay," E. G. Porter.
512. Small Bible printed at Edinburgh MDCCXXXVII., . . . Mrs. Fernald.
513. Tea-Kettle belonging to Gov. Hutchinson, the last Colonial Governor of Massachusetts, . . . Mrs. H. W. Williams.
514. Table from which Hancock and Adams took tea the night before the Battle of Lexington, . . . Mrs. J. A. Willard.
515. Book containing Autograph of James Otis, A. B. Otis.
516. Piece of Gobelin Tapestry which belonged to Joseph Barrell, and was hung up in Concert Hall, Hanover Street, Boston, at the reception of Washington, Chas. H. Joy.
517. Table which belonged to Joseph Bowditch, H. I. Bowditch.
518. Family Bible, 1751, " "
519. Official Signature, Reign of George II., 1736, " "
520. Wax-Work by Mary Turner, 1720, " "
521. Sermons written and delivered in Old Trinity Chapel, 1775-6, Mrs. C. H. Parker.
522. Josselyn's New England Voyages, 1674. New England's Rarities, John Josselyn, 1672. Order of Hospitals, 1557. Wood's "New England Prospects," 1631, B. Joy Jeffries.
523. English Gun found in the steeple of the Old South Church, Uriel Crocker.

524. Portrait of Col. Glover, Uriel Crocker.
 525. Portrait of Mrs. Glover, " "
 526. Baluster from the birthplace of James Otis, Barnstable, Mass., Miss S. A. Mayo.
 527. Washington Pitcher, " "
 528. Antique Dagger, 1414, C. C. Sewell.
 529. Continental Money, Mary Agassiz.
 530. Framed Letters from Gen. Agnew to his wife, written during the siege of Boston, Sept. 31, 1775, . . . H. A. Martin.
 531. China Cream Pitcher, said to be of the fifteenth century, and preserved for many generations in the Price family, Mrs. Isaac P. Osgood.
 532. Cup and Saucer handed down through seven generations of the Perry, Bull, and Price families, . . Mrs. F. E. Weston.
 533. Cake Plate. One of the first pieces of china imported to Boston. Belonged to the Hubbard family, Mrs. I. P. Osgood.
 534. Punch Bowl which belonged in the family of Rev. Roger Price, Rector of King's Chapel. Brought back to Boston in 1783, " "
 535. Miniature of Mrs. Wm. Price painted about 1770. She was a London belle, and was called a great beauty. Exhibited by the great-granddaughter of Rev. Roger Price, Mrs. F. E. Weston.
 536. Watch given by Joseph Jekyll to Miss Elizabeth Price. The letters of his name take the place of figures on the face, Mrs. I. P. Osgood.
 538. Watch and Chain of Dr. Kendall Osgood, surgeon of a privateer during the Revolutionary War, . . . " "
 539. Sleeve-Buttons and Earrings belonging to Dr. Kendall Osgood and his wife. Mrs. Osgood's father was said to be the last man to leave the ground at the battle of Bunker Hill, " "

540. Baby Basket which belonged to Mrs. Roger Price 1737, including the following articles of baby linen worn by the children of Rev. Roger Price: A head winder, two caps, a linen shirt, one knit night-shirt and one of dimity, a pair of linen mitts, and a pair of armlets, Mrs. I. P. Osgood.
541. Picture bought in Boston by Rev. Roger Price, and "given to his wife as emblematical of her industry," " "
542. Shoes worn by Mrs. Roger Price, " "
543. Embroidered petticoat worked in 1770 by Miss E. Bull, afterwards wife of Roger Price. The dress was worn by her on many state occasions, and by her daughter at the coronation of George III., " "
545. Christening Blanket in which all the children of Rev. Roger and Elizabeth Price were christened,
546. Remnants of brocade dress worn by Mrs. Roger Price, " "
547. Part of a Waist worn by the eldest daughter of Rev. Roger Price, 1747, " "
548. Toilet Cover which belonged to Mrs. Roger Price, " "
549. Muslin Kerchief of Mrs. Price, " "
550. Kerchief of Mrs. Price's embroidered in silver and gold, " "
551. Kerchief of wrought lace which belonged to Mrs. Price, " "
552. Wrought Muslin Apron worn by Madam Price, eldest daughter of Roger Price, " "
553. Stomacher of a dress worn by Miss Elizabeth Price, " "
554. Picture drawn with pen and ink by Mary Ann, daughter of Rev. Roger Price, 1761, born in Boston in 1745; died of small-pox in England in 1763. She was very beautiful and talented, " "
555. Lady's Pocket-book for 1778, " "

556. Picture of Beacon Hill painted upon a panel from the old Hancock House, Mrs. J. Q. Brown.
557. Crayon Portrait of Gen. Hull, by Sharpless; taken about 1780; loaned by the grandson of the General, Wm. Hull McLellan.
558. Crayon Portrait of Mrs. Gen. Hull, taken by Sharpless about 1780, " "
559. Washington's Spoon; sold by Mrs. Harrison Gray Otis at the Sailors' Snug Harbor Fair, " "
560. Gold Fringe, one hundred and fifty years old, around the first Communion Table in Christ Church at which Washington sat in Philadelphia, Penn. Exhibited by the grand-niece of Gen. Henry Knox, Mrs. Leslie M. A. Chessman.
561. Silver Tankard, Nathan Appleton.
562. High-heeled Embroidered Slippers, " "
563. Embroidered White Vest, " "
564. Old Piece of Embroidery, " "
565. Old Poem, commemorating the Boston Massacre, March 5, 1770, H. Q. Norton.
566. The "Psalms" and Gospel in the Indian and English tongues; printed for the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel. I. Green: Boston. 1709, . . . Madam Jeffries.
567. Silver Tankard made by the father of Paul Revere, and engraved with the name of Rebecca Goodwill, 1747, Mrs. Wm. H. Emery.
568. Silver Pitcher presented to Mr. Isaac Harris by the Society of the Old South Church for his intrepid and successful exertions on the roof of the church when on fire, Heirs of Isaac Harris.
569. Bridal Veil worn by Mrs. Vassal, wife of Major Leonard Vassall, one of the founders of Old Trinity, 1734, Mrs. John Jeffries.
570. Apron, embroidered and worn by Mrs. Leonard Vassal, about 1734, " "

571. Evening Dress owned by Miss Sarah Cummering, (afterwards Mrs. James Lloyd) about 1740, . . . Mrs. John Jeffries.
572. Shawl worn over a century ago, " "
573. Evening Dress of one hundred and twenty years ago, " "
574. A Sword used in the French, Indian, and Revolutionary wars,
575. Pitcher, with a Map of America,
576. Indian Tomahawk,
577. Medal, supposed to have been presented to the Indians,
578. Part of an Embroidered Bed-Quilt, more than one hundred years old, Mrs. D. R. Chapman.
579. Old Snuff Box, over one hundred and fifty years old, . . , " "
580. Part of a Brocade Dress, worn by Mrs. Benjamin Austin, " "
581. Old Sampler worked by Hannah Trecothick in 1738, " "
582. Torch used by Gen. Putnam in the wolf's den, . Mrs. Horace Goodwin.
583. Buckskin Breeches, worn in the Revolution, . . " "
584. Silver Knee-Buckles, " "
585. Sugar-Tongs, one hundred and twenty-five years old, " "
586. Half a dozen small Silver Spoons, " "
587. A piece of Petrified Wood from the Tomb of Washington, " "
588. A Cedar Knot from the Tomb of Washington, . " "
589. A Tile from the Willis House, in Hartford, Connecticut, cut on the grounds belonging to which stood the Charter Oak, where the Charter was deposited, " "
590. Shuttles, used in 1761, " "
591. "Boston Gazette," issued directly after the Boston Massacre, " "

592. The "Connecticut and Universal Gazette," published directly after the Battle of Lexington, . . . Mrs. Horace Goodwin.
593. Stick of Wood from the Cave at Promfret, where Gen. Putnam killed the wolf, " "
594. An Ordination Sermon, preached in 1776 at Center Church, Hartford, " "
595. Pocket Handkerchief made in 1732, " "
596. Scales and Weights, used for weighing gold during the Revolution, " "
597. "Hartford Courant," published directly after the Battle of Lexington, " "
598. Old Chair, used in 1730, " "
599. Gun which was used by the grandfather of Major Horace Goodwin, in Hartford, to defend himself against the Indians while attending church, " "
600. A Wine-glass owned by Gov. Hancock, " "
601. Two Cups and Saucers of 1770, " "
602. Bowl, Pitcher, and two Mugs of 1740, " "
603. Plate and little Saucer of 1776, " "
604. Dressing Case which belonged to Roger Wolcott, Major-General of the Connecticut forces at the capture of Louisburg, and Governor of the Colony from 1751 to 1754. He died May 17th, 1767, Thomas A. Collier, New London.
605. Toilet Cover, 1766, and Slippers, Mrs. G. S. Curtis.
606. Brass Button, with the motto, "No Stamp Act. Pitt. 1766." It was plowed up in Truro, Cape Cod, A. E. Hughes.
607. Shoes worn by Gov. Phillips, J. T. Bradley.
608. Portrait of William Phillips Savage, Moderator of the meeting in the Old South Meeting House, Dec. 16th, 1773, which ended in the Boston Tea Party, G. H. Emery.

609. Portrait of Gen Knox, Mrs. Thomas Motley.
610. Sleeve Buttons made of Petrified Wood, from the Tomb of Washington, Mrs. Horace Goodwin.
611. Cane made from Wood near the residence of Gen.
Washington, near Mt. Vernon, “ “
612. Gold Cross, 1775, “ “
613. Jewelry over one hundred years old, “ “
614. An Acorn from the Charter Oak, at Hartford, “ “
615. Jewelry made from Wood of the Charter Oak, by the Hon. J. W. Stewart, on whose estate the tree stood, “ “
616. A piece of Fringe from Christ Church, Philadelphia, where Washington was a member, “ “
617. Linen Apron, worn in 1739, “ “
618. Checked Linen, woven for Bed-curtains, in 1756, by the grandmother or Major Goodwin, of the Putnam Phalanx, “ “
619. Two Samples of the first papers on Gov. Hancock's House, “ “
620. Umbrella owned by Gen. David Cobb, 1776,
Mrs. W. A. Mason, Cambridge.
621. Allegorical picture of Washington ascending to heaven, painted on china soon after his death, . . . Mrs. A. S. Wheeler.
622. Portrait of Gen. Joseph Palmer, by Copley, 1770, Mrs. A. W. Palmer.
623. Old Engraving by Paul Revere, Hollis and Holden Chapel, Cambridge, E. N. Coburn.
624. House in which General Warren was born in 1741, as it appeared in 1840, “ “ 625. Pamphlets. 1. Sermon preached by Dr. Sewall at the Old South Church after the funeral of Mr.
Alex. Cummings, 1763. 2. Sermon preached at Cambridge on the death of Mr. Benjamin Wadsworth, President of Harvard College, 1736. 3.

Rules and Articles for the better Government of the Troops in America. 4. Sermon on the death of George II., by Mr. Cooper. 5. Manual Exercise as ordered by His Majesty in 1764. 6. The Snare Broken; a Thanksgiving Discourse on the Repeal of the Stamp-Act. 7. Proceedings in Charlestown after the death of Washington. 8. Sermon by Dr. Belnap. 9. Sermon by Mr. Byles. 10. Sermon delivered at the old Thursday Lecture by Ebenezer Pemberton in the Old South Church, with a poem by the negro girl, Phillis, "belonging to Mr. Wheatley." 11. Sermons on the Earthquakes in 1755, by Jonathan Mayhew, of the West Church. 12. Sermon on the Death of George II., preached in King's Chapel, by Dr. Caner.

626. Orderly Book of Surgeon Jeffries Halifax, 1776, B. Joy Jeffries.
 627. Three newspapers and two manuscripts, . . . , . . . Benjamin Drexel.
 628. Pine Tree Shilling 16, E. A. Coburn.
 629. Button of the 43d Regiment worn at Bunker Hill, " "
 630. Paul Dudley's Almanack and Memorandum, 1740. B. Joy Jeffries.
 631. Powder-Horn made by Joseph Howes, of Lebanon, Conn., and engraved, "This Horn made in wicked Cambridge, Oct. 14, 1775," J. W. Howes.

JAN 12 1939

